

Jason Ahr

jason@jasonahr.com | 770-710-4241
Tampa, FL

Summary

Economics student with experience in high-volume operations, systems training and analytical problem-solving. Skilled in optimizing workflows, managing real-time decision-making and improving efficiency in fast-paced environments. Seeking an entry-level operations or analyst role within a large organization.

Skills

- Analytical & Systems Thinking
- Data Interpretation & Reporting
- Stakeholder Communication
- Process & Workflow Optimization
- Quantitative Analysis & Applied Statistics
- Research Design, Synthesis & Interpretation

Work Experience

Stonewood Grille and Tavern, Tampa, FL

November 2024 - Present

Bartender; Server

- Managed high-volume operations, optimizing efficiency, accuracy, and service quality during peak periods
- Trained new hires on service workflows and operational standards, improving consistency and team performance

P.F. Chang's, Commerce City, CO

November 2023 - July 2024

National Trainer; Bartender

- Selected as a national trainer to lead new store openings and standardize workflows across multiple locations
- Recognized for performance in high-volume operations, leading to rapid promotion into a training role

Power Home Remodeling Group, Denver, CO

January 2023 - August 2023

Remodeling Consultant

- Executed one-call sales process, managing objections and decision-making in high-pressure customer interactions
- Generated over $60,000 in sales within a three-month period in a commission-driven environment

Leadership Experience

University of South Florida

January 2025 - Present

Peer to Peer Tutor – Economics

- Diagnosed student misunderstandings and reframed complex economic concepts into accessible explanations
- Adapted explanations in real time to different learning styles, constraints and levels of technical comfort

Sigma Phi Epsilon, Columbia, SC

September 2017 - December 2021

Academic Chair; Pledge Class President

- Elected by peers to oversee budgeting and operational planning for a large student organization
- Initiated a community service project (Polar Plunge 5K) raising funds for Big Brothers of America

Research Experience

Undergraduate Research, University of South Carolina

Fall 2017 - Fall 2020

Undergraduate Researcher

- Analyzed sponsorship activation strategies in major international sporting events to evaluate impacts on sales
- Synthesized research findings into actionable insights presented results to academic and industry audiences
- Authored and secured competitive federal research funding, including Magellan Voyager and Mini Grants

Higher Education

University of South Florida, Tampa, FL

May 2026

Bachelor of Arts in Economics